

MONDAY 23RD MARCH 2020 - MR D BARRON

Following tonight's announcement by our Prime Minister, I must stress the importance of social distancing. As from tomorrow, we will only be offering critical childcare for those that desperately need it. That means we will only accept children if both parents are key workers or if single parents are key workers. You must follow advice and only leave your homes if absolutely necessary.