

Adverbs – Extension task

Read the text below. It is a descriptive passage but it is missing adverbs which would help to improve it. Can you rewrite the passage adding adverbs to describe the verbs?

The man strolled down the quiet street. He saw something rustling in the bushes and started to run. He began to pant as he became more and more exhausted but his adrenaline pushed him forwards. Glancing backwards, he could see a shadow getting ever closer. He reached the safety of his house and renched the front door open. He bundled inside and slamed the door shut. He was safe.

