

The audience clapped

The words 'and' and 'when' are called conjunctions. A conjunction is a word that is used to join together the parts of a sentence.

A

Join these sentences using conjunctions from this list:

so and that

1. It was lucky for me. It was not going to be a problem.

It was lucky for me _____ it was not going to be a problem.

2. The sun was burning hot. We had to put on lashings of sunscreen.

The sun was burning hot _____ we had to put on lashings of sunscreen.

3. She clicked her fingers. The little dog began to dance.

She clicked her fingers _____ the little dog began to dance.

B Underline the connectives.

 First, we went to the Tower of London to see the Crown Jewels. Next, we saw Big Ben and, after lunch, we had a great time at the London Dungeon. Although it rained for most of the day we didn't really notice, except when we finally got back to the bus station and had to wait ages for the bus to come... in the rain!

C

Choose from these connectives to complete the passage below:

next first lastly but then _____ we went on the Ghost Train. It wasn't as scary as we thought it was going to be. _____ we went on the Rocky Coaster and that was terrifying! We thought we were going to go flying off the track! _____ we got a real soaking on the Log Flume and the Crazy Rapids. _____ we had a ride on the Angry Camel and it was so funny that we couldn't stop laughing.